

ISED Policy Briefs

The purpose of ISED Policy Brief Series is to provide a concise summary of an issue that includes the policy options to solve a problem and recommendations on the best option. It's most common audience is the decision-maker, in government, business or finance. Written for organization leaders, policymakers, and others who are responsible for creating and influencing policy, the target audience also includes academics, the press, and the broader public. The title, Financial Inclusion in India-Seventeen years on, gained much appreciation in financial and policy circles during the past few months. Please find it here.

For full details on ISED publications, please visit www.isedpublications.org