

ISED Knowledge Centre renamed

ISED has renamed its Centre for Economic Research after the veteran economist of the Bombay School of Economics, J.C Sandesara. Sandesara, former Director of Bombay School of Economics and Public Policy, was also former Chairman of the Research Advisory Group of the Institute. The objective of the Centre is to promote economic research with focus on industry and entrepreneurship.

Colleges and institutions interested in research collaboration are requested to contact, Coordinator, J.C. Sandesara Centre for Economic Research.

ISED has been accredited by the Ministry of Statistics & Program Implementation, Government of India (Source: Analytical Report on Survey Capabilities of the Private Sector), as an Institute of higher learning with National level survey capabilities (National Score= 44.93; National Rank: 25).